

The Alpacas Class Newsletter

November 2020

Alpaca Families,

October was a truly Spooktacular month! We had a fantastic time celebrating the beginning of Fall and learning all about our second project: "Our Community; Learning, Helping and Making a Difference." We have such a caring and kind group of Alpacas. They genuinely enjoyed learning about how they can help in their community. So, even though we have finished with topic of "Community", it is important that we all still work together to teach one another to always spread kindness. In the true spirit of "community", the Alpacas have chosen to start a school-wide service project, called: Comfort Animals. Please make sure to keep an eye out for the information that our class will be sending home. This project will extend far past the theme of Community.

We have so many things coming up in November! Our new theme is called: Showtime: Storytelling and Performing. This theme will be broken down into five weeks. Week one: "Communicate ideas, thoughts, or feelings through music, dance, and theater". Week two: "Story Characters: How do the characters tell the story?". Week three: "Imagination: How can we use our imaginations to retell a story?". Week four: "Storytelling: Plan a presentation of the story from beginning to end.". The final week, week five: "Culminating Event: Viewing Party". This theme is sure to be an exciting one! We have such wonderful imaginations in our Alpaca classroom. I cannot wait to see and hear what they come up with during this theme. Of course, we will also be discussing the topic of Thanksgiving, and continuing our understanding of how to be grateful and thankful. November is sure to be a wonderful month!

A few reminders:

If you have not already done so, please make sure to replace your child's extra clothes with seasonally appropriate clothes, just in case.

We will also be having our parent-teacher conferences virtually this year. There will be a sign-up sheet to come, as well as more information. I urge everyone to try and sign up for a conference slot. Our Alpacas have already accomplished so much in such a short period of time, and I would love to be able to share that with you.

As our friends start to turn 5, they will be asked to wear a mask during the day.*

Thank you
